
NATIONAL SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF VICTORY H-1659

Dedicated on May 25th, 1926 — The Basilica of our Blessed Lady of Victory was the fulfillment of the last great dream of Father Baker. So remarkable is its beauty that it is visited every year by thousands from all sections of our United States. The Shrine was consecrated by Patrick Cardinal Hayes and Bishop William Turner as a citadel of inspiration and comfort to Christians everywhere.

Dear Ester & George —

Had a little tough luck. Came home for a few days and landed in the hospital. I hope to be back in Kentucky by Sunday. Say a little prayer for —
